The Gladdest Season of All the Year

Christmas is always a time of happiness and cheeriness. Help to make the young folks happy, and the old folks happy, and all the rest of the folks happy; and you'll be the happiest of all yourself.

We've studied the whole problem of gift selecting carefully. We sent to Europe for Toys; to America for staple goods and holiday novelties. Our Mr. de Lacy has just returned from Honolulu where he ransacked the largest and finest stores for the best they have in Holiday Goods. Now the whole stock is on display and ready for your choosing.

We have kept in mind that it is not necessary for all gifts to be expensive—though we have expensive ones, too—but they must all be pleasing, attractive and USEFUL. Note these:

For the Ladies

A complete line of bits of daintiness for the ladies including pieces of fancy needle work, Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Neckwear, Jewelry, Hosiery, Fancy China, Laces, Toilet Sets, Stationery, Fancy Jewelry Cases, Hand Bags, Etc.

Hawaiian Jewelry

A highly seasonable line of unusually attractive Hawaiian Jewelry will delight any one to whom it is given, and for all its beauty and worth, it is very moderately priced.

Arts and Crafts

A very choice assortment of artistic goods that are always very acceptable holiday gifts.

We have a special line of Miss Furbur's Hand Painted China.

For the Gentlemen

There are many suitable gifts, including everything their hearts could desire. Meerchaum Pipes, Smoking Sets in craft work, Ash Trays in cut glass, Desk Sets in brass, Letter Openers and Paper Shears, Steins, Etc. In wearing apparel we have the niftiest gift in the market, in specially prepared combination boxes, containing a pair of socks and a tie to match.

Cut Glass

Our Cut Glass is perfect, being absolutely flawless, and some of the most exquisite pieces ever shown to our patrons.

Books

A very choice assortment embracing picture and painting books for the little folks, up-to-date novels and standard books for grown-ups. Special gift books for all.

Toys Toys Toys

Our holiday toy department is overflowing with all new and unique holiday goods. All the various kinds and sizes of dolls. Dressed dolls and undressed dolls, rag dolls, dolls with big blue eyes that close when they lie down, dolls with beautiful hair and eyelashes, character dolls, dolls with unbreakable faces, in fact almost anything a little girl could wish for in a dolly.

You are cordially invited to bring the children in to see our beautiful toys.

We could give you more suggestions, and when you come we will show you other things.

LOCAL TALENT PLAY

by Mr. Lydgate, "George Douglas" by Master Harry Weidemeyer, "Morton" by Willie Wolters, "Lord Robert Stewart" by Alexander Hogg, and "Lindsay" by Henry Gandall.

Well Satisfied

One youthful actor, who took an important part in the recent play was heard to remark—"well I now can say I haven't lived in vain! That's what they always say in books isn't it?"

Not Rattled

We want to commend especially the cool and collected self control of the actors in the play in that they didn't lose their heads when things didn't go quite according to programme. The town clock was two hours slow and struck 8 where it should have been 10. That didn't hase Mary, she stuck to her 10. In the Rizzio scene the inrush of the conspiring nobles didn't quite come to time, and we understand they had to be sent for. That didn't disconcert Mary and Rizzio enjoyed the few moments of deprive.

In the Black Arts scene, we surmise that the fire under the pot kind of got away from the witch and gave promise at one time of being more exciting than was intended—but if so she gave no sign that it wasn't all in the prospect. Such coolness and reserve wisdom is most commendable.

A Kindly Act

The children of the public schools of Lihue and Hanalei, and of the German school were enabled to enjoy the "Mary Queen of Scots" play through the kindness of Mrs. Isenberg and Mr. A. S. Wilcox. There were upwards of 200 children admitted to the matinee on a basis of 10¢ each. Long may these benefactors dwell in the land to do such kindly deeds.

A WORD OF THANKS

As Mary Queen of Scots becomes a thing of the past, I wish to convey my personal thanks and appreciation to all whose efforts and interest combined to make it a success. To the children who through weeks of patient and painful drilling sweat blood and tears and never lost faith, though sometimes we did; to the parents who held them to it when sometimes the children didn't want to; to the friends who created wonderful costumes out of tag ends of velvet and worn out dresses; and finally to the public, who bought the tickets with a lavish hand, not expecting much of their money, and yet came to the show—and we hope were pleasantly disappointed.

Corporations may not have souls but some of them have manners and courtesies of nobility and none more so than the Lihue Store in the person of its Manager Mr. H. Rohrig—with frank and responsive grace to placed the resources of the store at the disposal of the "Mary Queen of Scots" management and thereby facilitated matters very much. I suppose that is business—I hope so—surely no good Scotchman at least will forget the kindness.

"Mary Queen of Scots" extends her thanks to Mr. G. F. Winter, Chief Engineer of Lihue for invaluable electrical and mechanical assistance. He has the courtly qualities of a gentleman.

Mrs. A. De Bretteville was the whole orchestra in the play the other night—and quite sufficient "Mary Queen of Scots" thanks her most heartily.

J. M. LYDGATE.
